"We still have 95 tenants living in the existing unmodernised blocks; still sharing communal facilities such as toilet and wash tap on the landing. Many of these tenants have lived here all their lives; and we demand that these 95 tenants will be the first and given priority in any allocation of flats in the modern-

One of the tenants who saw the leaflet and decided to go was Mr Crossman, married with two children aged 6 and 9. "My youngest kid's never seen a bath, we've been here 7 years and been waiting two and a half years for a transfer. The windows need fixing and there's damp in the kitchen.
I work hard; when I come home I don't want to have to go down to the public baths for a bath. If nothing happens now we might have to organise a rent strike, I'm not happy with paying rent for a place that isn't comfortable."
